

Mt Warning/Wollumbin National Park

Mt Warning/Wollumbin is the central plug of a huge, shield-shaped extinct volcano. Wollumbin is a sacred place to the Bundjalung people, traditional inhabitants of the region. Under Bundjalung law, only chosen people are allowed to climb Wollumbin. Out of respect for their culture, the Bundjalung People ask that you consider not climbing.

 Lyrebird Track is a short easy (20min, 300m return) that takes you across Breakfast Creek, then winds through palm forest to a scenic viewing platform.

Mt Warning to Murwillumbah - Driving Directions

- ⇒ Heading back along Mt Warning Road turn left onto Kyogle Rd for approximately 15km.

Murwillumbah

Murwillumbah is rich dairy, sugar cane and banana country. It's located on the banks of the Tweed River and set in the Tweed River Valley against a backdrop of rainforest-clad hills.

Tweed Regional Gallery & Margaret Olley Art Centre

Before leaving Murwillumbah take the time to visit the Tweed Regional Art Gallery which offers stunning views of Mt Warning from the panoramic windows inside the gallery & from the deck of the gallery's gourmet café.

It is a short 3km drive from the Visitor Information Centre. Once leaving the information centre head South along the Tweed Valley Way, turn right into Scott St & left into Mistral Rd. Exhibitions change regularly throughout the year & cover various artistic mediums.

The Margaret Olley Art Centre features original architectural elements such as windows and doors, relocated from Olley's home studio at 48 Duxford St, Paddington, Sydney. Open Wed to Sun 10am-5pm.

When exploring the hinterland please ensure that you take adequate water, wear appropriate footwear, apply sun protection & wear a hat.

Nimbin

Nimbin is known and famous for being a hippy destination and alternative lifestyle capital. Nimbin changed forever after hosting the 1973 Aquarius Festival, attracting students, hippies and visionaries from all over Australia.

Nimbin is intriguing and quirky with its unique mural streetscape of indigenous, rainforest and psychedelic facades and colourful local characters.

Nimbin Rocks

The towering Nimbin Rocks are estimated to be 20 million years old & are of great significance to the traditional owners from the Bundjalung Nation and for this reason access is restricted. View the site from the southern entrance of the village from Nimbin Rd or Stoney Chute Rd.

Nimbin Candle Factory

For over 40 years, this family-run business has been making beautiful traditional, non-toxic candles using essential oils and vegetable dyes. Open daily at The Old Butter Factory by Mulgum Creek.

Nimbin Artists Gallery

A gallery run by local artists with locally made arts and crafts for sale. Open daily 10am - 5pm.

Hemp Embassy

At Nimbin's Hemp Embassy you will find information and alternative hemp based products such as building materials, fashion, body products and vitamins.

Djanbung Gardens Permaculture Centre

Djanbung Gardens is a living 'learnscape' of sustainability in action. Take a walk through 5ha of organic gardens and see innovative natural building technologies, wildlife and bush regeneration. Open Wed-Sat 10.30am-3pm.

Nimbin Markets

The Nimbin Markets are held on the 4th & 5th Sundays of the month at Nimbin Community Centre, 8am-3pm. The Nimbin Farmers Market at Green Bank Car Park are on Wednesdays from 3-6pm.

- ◆ You will pass the Candle Factory on your right—make sure you drop in and check out the colourful candles made using all renewable energy.
- ⇒ Continue on Cullen St for about 1km and it will become Blue Knob Rd. Follow Blue Knob Rd for approx 6km.

Blue Knob Hall Gallery & Café is nestled below the sacred landmark of Lillian Rock, this quaint co-operative gallery offers a changing exhibition program & a beautiful outlook over Blue Knob Mountain & Nightcap National Park. Open Thu, Fri & Sun 10am-3pm, Sat: 8.30am-3pm.

Blue Knob Farmers Market is on at the Gallery every Saturday 8:30am-12pm.

Blue Knob to Uki - Driving Directions

- ⇒ Continue on Blue Knob Rd to Kyogle/Murwillumbah Rd. Turn Right towards Uki & Murwillumbah & continue on the Kyogle Rd.

Sphinx Rock Café

The Sphinx Rock Café situated at Mt Burrell, on the Kyogle Rd on the left hand side just before Kunghur is a great destination to relax. Free Live Music Sundays 12-3pm.

Clarrie Hall Dam

Just after the village of Kunghur, turn right onto Doon Doon Rd to Crams Farm Recreation Area at Clarrie Hall Dam. Activities permitted on the Dam include canoeing, boating (electric motor, sail or paddle only) & fishing. The Dam is stocked with Australia Bass & also supports several significant bird species. Perfect for photography, bird watching, picnics & bushwalking.

Uki

This little village nestled at the base of Wollumbin (Mt Warning) is home to an eclectic group of friendly locals. The village consists of a small number of shops, a renowned café, galleries, studios & holistic health centres, old wares, a great bookshop & an internet café. The Uki markets are held every 3rd Sunday of the month. Check out the trash & treasure bargains, it is a great morning out. Every Saturday morning the same hall is buzzing with locals buying their weekly fresh produce at the weekly Farmers Market.
